HOW IS MY MONEY CONNECTED TO NUCLEAR WEAPON COMPANIES - AND WHAT CAN I DO ABOUT IT?

Some people say that individuals cannot change the nuclear weapons companies. But that's not true. Banks and pension funds divested from nuclear weapons due to pressure from civil society and individuals, but what effect does this have on the companies and on the production of nuclear weapons?

Welcome to a digital conversation between Susi Snyder, Don't Bank on the Bomb coordinator and Josefin Lind, Secretary General at Swedish Physicians against Nuclear Weapons about divestment and nuclear weapons.
